

2004/2005 Seminar Series

- Sept. 29th Paul Hennon and David D'Amore, USDA Forest Service Pacific Northwest Research Station, Juneau Alaska
Influence of Soil Temperature, Hydrology and Chemistry on Yellow-cedar Mortality in southeast Alaska.
Find out More
- Nov. 17th Len Vanderstar, Habitat Protection Biologist, Smithers
The Tailed Frog (Ascaphus truei) as an Indicator of Ecological Integrity of Mountain Streams in Northwest BC.
- Dec. 1st Dr. Dave Wilford, Forest Hydrologist, Ministry of Forests, Smithers
Forestry on Fans - An Update
- Dec. 15th Patrick Williston, Gentian Botanical Research
Adventures in Alice Arm: The Search for Canada's Rarest Fern.
- Jan. 12th Melissa Todd, Wildlife Biologist, Weldwood Northern Operations, Houston
Dead Wood in Forested Ecosystems: Managing, Modeling, Monitoring, and Other Mysteries.
Find out More
- Jan. 26th Dave Marek, Forest Protection Technician & Fire Behaviour Specialist, B.C. Ministry of Forests, Smithers
Wildfire Hazard Assessment and Prediction for MPB Killed Lodgepole Pine Stands.
Find out More
- Feb. 9th Liz Osborn & Richard Overstall, Wildland Nexus & Buri, Overstall Law Firm, Smithers
The Monitoring Trust: The Key to Adaptive Planning in the Babine.
- Feb. 23rd Dave Daust & Karen Price, Burns Lake
Using Risk and Uncertainty to Determine Monitoring Priorities in the Babine: The Next Step in Land-use Planning.
- Mar. 9th Will MacKenzie, Research Ecologist, Research Branch, B.C. Ministry of Forests, Smithers
Getting High on BEC - Ecosystem Classification of the Alpine.
- Apr. 6th Jeff Meggs, Conservation Planner with Forestry Tasmania, Australia.
Threatened Invertebrates as a Tool in Forest Biodiversity Conservation: Opportunities and Pitfalls.
- Apr. 13th Denise Allen, Ph.D. Candidate, UBC Sustainable Forest Management Research Group
The Ties that Bind: Measuring Social and Cultural Impacts of Forestry in the Bulkley Valley.